

THE BRIDGE

©Yirmal Marika, Shane Howard

1. We are standing on a bridge
Between your world and mine
There's a river runs beneath us
With a memory, old as time

Chorus

It don't matter to that river
Which side we're standing on
It will bind us to it's memory
Ever rolling, rolling on

2. So much wreckage lying under
Mighty currents of change
Any moment, flooding river
It could sweep us all away

3. Spirit sings with one voice
Brothers and sisters walking hand in hand
We are walking in two worlds
Are we walking hand
